Consultant Says SW Bell Rates Are Too High

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Washington, D. C. utilities consultant testified today that Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. is "top heavy" with common stock indebtedness.

Arnold Hirsch told the Public Service Commission, which thinks that Bell ought to reduce its Arkansas rates by about three million dollars yearly, that this condition imposes "an undue financial hardship" on subscribers.

Hirsch said that Bell has only 17.1 per cent of long term debt such as bonds in its capital structure.

This is only about one-third of the percentage of debt of most utilities, including 504 independent telephone companies, he said.

Hirsch declared that common stock is the "most expensive type of capital" and penalizes the rates payers for the benefit of stockholders.

Virtually all of Bell common stock is owned by its parent company, American Telephone & Telegraph Co.

Hirsch took the witness stand for a second day as the commission staff continued presentation of its case for a reduction.

He calculated that Southwestern Bell is earning a 7.72 per cent rate of return, compared to the traditional 6 per cent allowed Arkansas utilities.

The PSC last April ordered Bell to "show cause" why the proposed three million dollar reduction should not be put into effect.

Bell is resisting the reduction and has countered with a request for an upward adjustment of nearly a half million dollars in certain charges which are not a part of basic rates.

Money Set Up to Battle the Beetle

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus today authorized a $1.5 million fund to combat the white-fringed beetle, which the group had infested 1,037 acres near Forrest City.

County Judge M. D. Clark and Rep. O. P. Hammons headed the seven-man delegation.

Clark and Hammons said total cost of the eradication program would be $8,000, and the federal government will pay $4,300 and the county $370.

Clark said the white-fringed beetle attacks cotton, soybeans and root crops.

Moon Rocket Explodes and Burns on Pad

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — An Atlas-Able rocket being readied for a U.S. shot at the moon exploded on its pad during a test of its engines today.

Flames spurted from the base of the towering rocket as the countdown reached zero in the static engine test. Suddenly the missile erupted in a flash of fire.

A mass of boiling flames and black smoke engulfed the launching pad for more than a minute. None of the approximately 40 members of the test crew in the blockhouse 50 yards away was hurt.

The Air Force issued this statement shortly after the explosion: "An Atlas-Able missile exploded on the launch pad this morning during a static test at the Atlantic missile range. The missile was being prepared for a space probe early next month. No personnel were injured. The cause of the explosion is being investigated by the Air Force."

The Atlas-Able was to have been launched sometime between Oct. 2 and 6 when the moon was to be at its closest point to the earth.

The shot would have been an attempt to put a 735-pound satellite in orbit about the moon.

It is doubtful that the United States can ready another Atlas-Able rocket in time for an early October launching. This means it will be at least early November before such a launching can be attempted.

The explosion of the more than 100-foot tall rocket was a bitter blow to U.S. hopes for leveling the moon score with the Russians. Earlier this month the Soviets recorded a spectacular space feat by hitting the moon with one of their big rockets.

Khrushchev on Best Behavior in Pittsburgh

By ARTHUR EDSON
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Nikita Khrushchev toured Pittsburgh today in an open car under bright sunshine.

The chief focus of interest was a company which makes the big machines used by steel mills. In the Soviet Premier's party is Nikolai A. Tikhonov, a big wheel in the Soviet steel industry.

This industrial center is the last stop on Khrushchev's cross-country tour before he gets down to the main business of his American mission—talks with President Eisenhower on world tensions.

One major matter—disarmament—has more reports that Khrushchev was expressing confidence that inspection controls could be worked out.

Adlai Stevenson, the 1952-56 Democratic presidential candidate, said Khrushchev told him that at Coon Rapids, Iowa Wednesday.

The Premier arrived Wednesday night after a flight from Des Moines, Iowa.

Police had a bit of security jitters at the time, and the trip from the airport to a downtown hotel was made in a closed car.

Today, a crowd of four or five thousand lined the sidewalks as Khrushchev came out of his hotel.

There was some cheering and some waving of hands by spectators. There also was some booing.

Khrushchev arrived right on schedule at Mesta Machinery Co., makers of steel mill machinery.

On his way, he passed the huge Jones & Laughlin sheet strip mill, silent and closed by the nationwide steel strike.

The visit to the Mesta plant and an address to a civic luncheon were the main events on the Premier's schedule here.

At 2:25 p.m. his big plane is scheduled to leave for Washington and serious business: Momentous talks with President Eisenhower on what can be done to ease East-West tensions.

Khrushchev looked tired Wednesday night as he flew in from a rollicking day in the corn country.

What he saw probably didn't pep him up any.

This city has many who are of Hungarian, Polish or Slovak origin. Even before Khrushchev hit town demonstrators were waving signs that carried such legends as:

"Butcher of Budapest," "Killer of American pilots" and "Remember 1956 with George Washington and 1956 Hungary with Nikita Khrushchev."

Security officials, always jittery whenever Khrushchev goes, became down-right jumpy. Plans to have Khrushchev ride in an open car were abandoned, and the route he was to follow was changed.

Police lined the 17 miles in from the airport. And they stood with their backs to the road, their eyes peeled for potential trouble on any of the hills.

Khrushchev was taken up the narrow, winding road to the top of Mt. Washington for a sweeping view of Pittsburgh. From there he could see the skyscrapers—many of them especially lit up for the occasion—of downtown Pittsburgh, an imposing sight.

A crowd of 5,000 or more was jammed around the Carlton House, awaiting Khrushchev, even though he didn't arrive until 12:03 a.m.

Here were more signs.

One said: "God Bless America, God Free Ukraine."

Another: "Red Atrocities in Ukraine defy description."

But some signs were favorable. "A salute to peace," one read. And another proclaimed: "We salute the peace efforts of President Eisenhower and Premier Khrushchev."

Mr. K. stood for a moment facing the crowd. He waved his hat, and then went into the hotel and, presumably, to bed.

Two Scheduled to Die in Electric Chair

TUCKER PRISON FARM, Ark. (AP)—Two Negro men are scheduled to die in Arkansas' electric chair at dawn tomorrow.

They are Leo Lee, 56, who was convicted of the 1956 slaying of a Negro postman in Pulaski County, and James M. Moore, 22, sentenced with three companions for the robbery-slaying of 76-year-old M. R. Harmon of Miller County, a white man.

Fifteen other men await execution in Tucker's crowded death row. Only two of them are white.

The three other Negroes sentenced to die for the Harmon murder are Willie Henry Byrd, 23, James Boyd, 22, and Rogers Eason, 27, all of Miller County.

The white men in death row are Emmett Earl Leggett, sentenced for the slaying of 14-year-old Joe King of Jacksonville, and Frank Nail, who was convicted of slaying a prisoner here.

Leggett has received 10 stays of execution, including one last month signed by state Supreme Court Justice Jim Johnson. The state is attacking that stay and Leggett's case is now pending before the Supreme Court.

Other under death sentence—all Negroes—are Arthur Hayes, 43, of Mississippi County; J. T. House, 24, of Phillips County; Lawrence Moore, 20, of Crittenden County; John Bracey, 25, of Chicot County; Thomas Walker, 52, of Crittenden County; William Young, 39, of Mississippi County; Edward Walton Jr., 22, of Little River County; Luther Bailey, 47, Pulaski County; Lonnie B. Mitchell, 24, of Boone County; and Frank Andrew Payne, 23, of Jefferson County.

TREATED WELL—Nicholas Petrulli, a New York City metal worker who renounced his U.S. citizenship in Moscow then changed his mind and got it back, smiles broadly as he arrives at Idlewild Airport. Petrulli said he liked Russia "very much" and had been treated well by Soviet officials. — NEA Telephoto

More Members of New York Gangs Jailed

NEW YORK (AP) — Police rounded up 27 youths in two well-armed gangs Wednesday night, probably preventing more killings in the tense Bronx area where 16-year-old John Guzman was slain Monday.

One group of six youths, three of them over 21, were trapped by police on a rooftop with a pile of nine "Molotov cocktail" gasoline bombs, a shotgun with 22 shells, two hunting knives and a box of 22-caliber bullets.

A short time later three carloads of youths that were spotted about four blocks away and caught after a five-block chase.

Chairman Not to Visit Health Center

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev today canceled plans for a visit to the National Institutes of Health at nearby Bethesda, Md.

The White House said the Kremlin leader is revising his schedule to provide more time to prepare his talks with President Eisenhower over the weekend.

Those discussions, starting Friday, will take place at Camp David, Eisenhower's estate in Maryland, near Thurmont, Md.

All Around Town

The suddenly "rated" Hope Bobcats are still making newspapers around this area and here's what DeQueen's J. R. McKinley says: "Here's wishing Hope goes on to win a football season, but I'm guessing Smackover will take their measure Friday night. . . . Can't believe the Bobcats will get as high again all season as they were against DeQueen. . . . Not even rated two weeks ago the Bobcats had themselves picked as the state's 5th team in one poll, 11th on another and at the top of Class AA schools. . . . Just for the record and no credit taken, away from a fine game played by Johnny Turner. . . . but Eddie King was the boy who tackled Wayne Cox Friday night when the speedy leopard back seemed about to go all the way in the final moments. . . . and a green chiffon neck scarf was found in Bill's Cafe at DeQueen last Friday night after the game. . . . the owner can get it at the High School from Mrs. Den Sever.

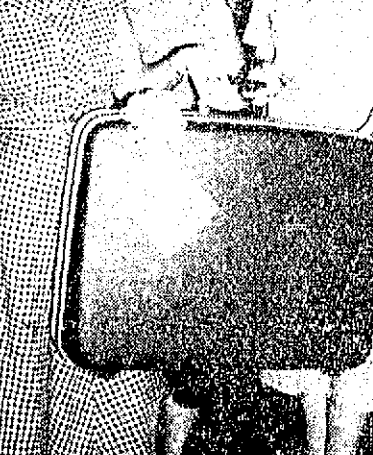

Two meetings are slated for tonight. . . . the Auxiliary Police meet at 7:30 at City Hall where they will hear a talk by Judge Lyle Brown. . . . and the VFW meets at 8 o'clock tonight to plan its 1960 membership campaign.

As in the past the Home Band Auxiliary will operate the concession stand Friday night at the football game serving hamburgers, hot dogs, cold drinks and pop corn.

An auto stop here from P. L. Perkins the night of Sept. 16 has been recovered at Lawton, Okla. . . . three persons were arrested for the theft.

Reports from the Nevada County Fair is a good one. . . . a real "old-time" fair with many fine exhibits of farm products, handicrafts, needlework, etc. . . . worth anyone's time to see.

Identity Cards Given to 9 L. R. Students

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Central High School identity cards were given today to nine white students, but officials did not say whether the youngsters were among those suspended last week for a mild protest over expanded integration at the school.

The board met to hear students who either had their cards confiscated or had lost them. Thirteen students indicated they would attend the hearing but only 12 showed up.

The cards of nine students were collected by school authorities last Friday in the flurry of protest over admission of three more Negroes to Central High. The school already had two Negro students. Three white students walked out in protest and six would not enter classes.

Supt. Terrell Powell did not specify whether the nine who were given cards were those involved in the protest or included students who had merely lost their cards. The cards must be presented for entry into Central High.

None of the 13 students' names was disclosed.

Dr. Lawrence Returns to Pulpit Sunday

The pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Dr. Lawrence, plans to return to the pulpit of the church Sunday for the morning worship service. Sermon subject will be "Things From Afar" and he will seek to express also his deep appreciation for the many kindnesses extended him by the officers and members of the church and other friends.

Three elders of the church, H. B. Barr, John B. Lowe and Judge James H. Pilkinton, will conduct the worship service. Mrs. C. C. McNeill will be guest organist. There will be special music by the Church Choir. "Consider and Hear Us" will be the special anthem with the solo by Miss Tena Pilkinton.

Lee Guilty of Manslaughter, Gets 7 Years

A Union County jury yesterday convicted O. D. Lee of Stamps of voluntary manslaughter and fixed his punishment at seven years in the penitentiary for the death of Anita Stewart, who he and LaFayette County Hospital, where she was pronounced dead, where she was pronounced dead.

Prosecuting Attorney Bill Prewitt of El Dorado, where the beating that caused the death was actually administered, stated that without the thorough and painstaking investigation made by Hempstead County Prosecuting Attorney's office, Sgt. Milton Mosier, Sheriff Buck Baker of Lafayette County and Dr. R. H. Harrison, corner of Lafayette County and without the testimony of these officers, of Roy Hanson and other witnesses from this area a conviction could not have been obtained.

Mr. Prewitt expressed his appreciation to all local folks concerned, who helped in any way to solve what was one of the most difficult crimes to solve, committed in the El Dorado-Hope area in recent years. This included the Hope City Police, the Hempstead County and Nevada County Sheriffs' office and a number of citizens of Garland City and Nevada County.

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—O. D. Lee, 40, of Stamps, was found guilty of voluntary manslaughter yesterday in the death of 33-year-old Anita Stewart of Texarkana.

A circuit court jury deliberated four hours before bringing in the verdict.

Lee was given until Oct. 7 to file a motion for a new trial. Judge Gus W. Jones said formal sentencing would be delayed until then.

The woman died July 27 in a Lewisville hospital. A beating she allegedly suffered July 24 in El Dorado led to the charge against Lee.

Lee took the stand in his own defense and admitted having told a Texarkana woman the day before Miss Stewart died that she had "gotten bruised up."

Pink Bollworm Regulations Are Sent Out

The State Plant Board and the USDA have sent out pink bollworm regulations and all people concerned should familiarize themselves with this information.

If you do not fully understand these regulations and their implications I would like to urge you to talk to your neighbors or come by the county agents office, Wade Benefield, Associate County Agent said.

Southwest Arkansas is in Area A and the following regulations apply:

1. All seed cotton hauled to gins must be covered and the machine so constructed so as not to scatter cotton on public highways.
2. Seed produced in Area A must be treated or fumigated before going back to the farm, either for seed or feeding.
3. All cotton stalks must be destroyed by Jan. 31, 1960.
4. Land owners, operators, etc. may be put on the ginnery prohibited list for failure to cover cotton hauled to the gin.
5. For violating any of the regulations the persons concerned are liable and may be fined $100 for each violation.

This information was taken from the pink bollworm regulations, circular 16, revised August, 1959.

Talks Bog Down in El Dorado Strike

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — Negotiations between labor and management in the 13-week oil American Oil Co. refinery strike bogged down again yesterday.

Company officials and representatives of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union suspended conferences that began Monday.

H.A. Heiss, refinery manager, said there was "unfortunately" little hope for an early settlement.

A. A. Wheeler of Little Rock, a federal mediator who has been taking part in the conferences, said he would contact both sides next week in regard to setting a date for further talks.

The strike began July 1 over contract proposals. Wages are not involved.

Impersonator Questioned in Bank Robbery

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Police said today a female impersonator told them he was the companion of the odd little hold-up man who committed suicide when his weird bank robbery plan failed Wednesday.

The female impersonator, identified as Harry E. Dunlap of Cleveland, was hazy on details, but the police were checking his story.

Police arrested the 36-year-old Dunlap today after he fled from a taxi. The cab driver called police to complain that Dunlap failed to pay $22 he owed.

The accomplice in the holdup appeared to be a woman, but "mousey blond" hair looked suspiciously like a wig. The accomplice was clad in a blue gartered suit and shiny black shoes and carried a hat box and a red bag which contained a small automatic pistol. When last seen the accomplice was driving a rented car toward the branch bank where the robbery was supposed to happen.

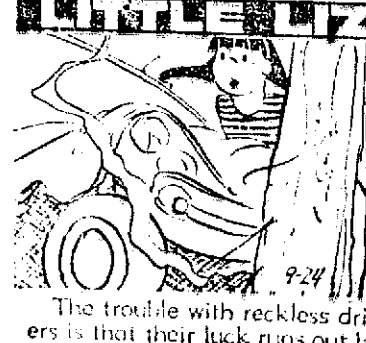

"A BLUE RAINCOAT. . . ." — John Guzman, 16, whispers, "a blue raincoat. . . ." into a New York detective's ear to identify assistant who shot him on the steps of the Morris High School in the Bronx. Guzman was shot shortly after arriving at a hospital. Police later arrested Edward Peters, a Puerto Rican gang leader, who, authorities said, confessed the slaying. — NEA Telephoto

DOROTHY DIX

When Martial Woes Pile Up, Outside Help Often Needed

By DOROTHY DIX

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a man in need of advice if ever anyone was, and since I don't have a close friend I can confide in, I'm turning to you.

I've always had an inferiority complex, been very self-conscious, and have never been successful at dances, parties or any form of social function. My few attempts at dating flopped because of my father's obsession that I marry a girl of my own nationality. Finally, a family of this nationality moved next door and I became friendly with the daughter. I just wanted to be good friends with her, but the first thing I knew our families had practically pushed us into an engagement. We were married, although I was a reluctant bridegroom and then the trouble began. I lost all respect for myself, stopped going to church, though I had been brought up in a very religious home, and my sense of inferiority became worse than ever. My wife is a good homemaker and loves me, but she is as much under her mother's influence as I am under my father's. My mother-in-law is complete boss of our household. She makes life miserable for us but my wife won't tell her off. My inferiority complex is worse than ever. I feel I can't really be myself with anyone because someone is watching every move I make and my marriage seems headed for the rocks. Is there any help for these problems? I've been having a lot of stomach trouble due to all this tension—Earl K.

Dear Earl: This is definitely not a do-it-yourself project. You need help, lots of it and from different sources. Tackle each aspect of your problem by itself and in time, the whole thing will clear up. First go back to church. Have a good, soul-searching talk with your pastor. He will clear up the spiritual end of your problem. Then, see a marriage counselor with your wife. He'll take care of the material end. This isn't home. I want nothing to do with her, but am afraid she will have my visiting rights taken away if I don't see her.—Phil

Dear Phil: See a lawyer. My unlegal opinion would be that you will probably have to cater to her to preserve your visiting rights. You know what they say about a woman spurned and divorce courts are usually more sympathetic to the woman than the man. However, I repeat, see a lawyer.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My boy friend is an Air Force cadet of 22. I'm terribly fond of him. Whenever he calls, he asks me if I love him. I say yes, and he doesn't say anymore. He's told friends he'd marry me if he had any money, so I know he's that fond of me. How can I find out where I stand with him? Penelope

Dear Penelope: Being "terribly fond" of someone just isn't enough to build a marriage on. Instead of wondering where you stand with him, give a little thought to your own feelings. Waiting won't hurt you.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I sometimes attend the "Dances" but have often wondered how many dances one should have with the same boy in succession. I think that as long as you can both hold a pleasant conversation, keep dancing. My girl friend says maybe the boy would prefer to dance with someone else and I should refuse the next dance.—Lily T.

Dear Lily: A polite boy does not leave a girl stranded on a dance floor, so a considerate girl gives him the opportunity to dance with someone else, if he wants to. If you are getting along well, give him a chance for a graceful exit after the second, or third dance. If he comes back, keep him.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a young man of 20, living at home, a sophomore in college, working four nights a week and attending an occasional baseball or basketball game. I'm an only child and my folks are always nagging at me. Mother tells me what to wear and if I wear something different she gets mad. She reads all the letters I receive, and most of the time she asks innumerable questions, most of them silly, and if I don't answer she makes a fuss. I rarely date a girl, but I even suggest it, mother wants to come along. She says that's the way things were done when she was a girl. All this may sound silly, but I'm getting tired of being treated like a 12-year-old.—Alce

Dear Alce: Mother was a girl about the time I was, and I assure you, parents didn't go along on dates. Dating was strictly for two then, as it is now. Mom is just a lonely soul with nothing to do, so she's living your life for you. This is a parent's No. 1 mistake, but nothing has been found to cure it. Get her interested in a parent's organization at school. With something else to occupy her mind and time, she may ease up on you.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Six months ago I wrote to you. I was heart broken because the boy I loved had just told me he wanted to go out with another girl. He told me he wanted to see which of us he liked best. I thought it was good-bye forever. You advised me to wait patiently and he'd come back. You also told me not to question him about the interlude when he did come back. I took your advice, and am glad to say I am to be married to the young man next year. He dated the other girl just three weeks, then decided I was the one he wanted after all. After our little "vacation" we had a deeper, more mature feeling for each other.—Dolly

Dear Dolly: I'm happy to pass your experience on to other girls. Weeping, wailing and nagging never brought a boy back, but patient waiting frequently works wonders.

Send your problem to DOROTHY DIX. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her care of this newspaper.

parently had wounded himself with a knife while in a state of fatigue.

He said Munford was in serious condition when he arrived, but that his condition was excellent after surgery.

Ouellette had said earlier two doctors "were getting ready to go with Mr. Munford to Boston to arrange for further treatment" for his nervous condition.

The hospital reported Munford had a good night and described his condition today as "satisfactory."

Ouellette issued this statement: "Mr. Munford has been under the care of his personal physician for the past few weeks suffering from fatigue and nervous exhaustion. The day before yesterday, Dr. O'Connor (Robert B.) and Harvey M. Jordan, executive vice president of U.S. Steel, visited Mr. and Mrs. Munford as overnight guests.

"During yesterday morning while getting ready to go with Mr. Munford to Boston to arrange for further treatment he apparently wounded himself with a knife. He was immediately taken to the Cape Cod Hospital where the wound was repaired. His condition post-operatively was satisfactory. Today his progress continues to be good.

As the district attorney in charge of Barnstable County began an investigation, it was learned that the injury to the steel executive remained undisclosed until nine hours after Munford's admission to the hospital.

The circumstances of the stabbing remained a mystery pending sufficient improvement in his condition to permit questioning.

District Atty Edmund Dinis said his aides hope to question the 39-year-old executive some time today.

Dinis refused to answer newspaper questions about Munford's injury other than it was inflicted with a kitchen knife.

Authorities impounded a five-inch knife they found in the lavatory of Munford's summer home in Chatham.

Dinis said he ordered an investigation to determine if Munford's wound was "self-inflicted or otherwise."

Dr. Robert B. O'Connor, U.S. Steel Corp. medical director, called for an ambulance at 10:15 a.m. Wednesday. A moment later,

New! Continental Pancake

The new Continental Pancake creates an aura of Old World glamour! It comes to the table pulled up with pride under a crown of cranberries or apple sauce. And it has a secret: the Continental Pancake is so easy to make from ingredients usually on hand, even new cooks can have gourmet results! Serve with beverage as an exciting main dish.

Continental Pancake
1 tablespoon shortening
3 eggs
1/2 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1 tablespoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup milk
Butter
Lemon juice
Honey or sugar
Confectioners' sugar
Cranberry or apple sauce

Place fat in deep skillet (10 to 12-inch diameter), and place in oven while ingredients are being mixed and oven preheated to 450°F. Beat eggs until light. Blend flour, sugar, salt; add to egg mixture; add milk. Beat until smooth. Remove skillet from oven; spread shortening to grease bottom. Pour in all batter. Bake 15 minutes (until pancake is puffy, well-risen, brown). Dot surface with butter. Sprinkle with lemon juice and honey or sugar. Roll, or fold from opposite sides to center, making three layers. Turn out on warm platter. Garnish with fruit. Dust with confectioners' sugar. Serve promptly. Makes 1 or 2 servings.

show cause why its rates should not be reduced.

He said they voiced a complaint that the company was being discriminated against and that its elimination against utilities would create a bad industrial climate in the state.

Fabius said he did not feel utility rates had a great effect on industrialization as long as utilities were permitted to earn a fair return.

He said he told the Bell people to make their case before the PSC.

Field Marshal Lord Dies in London

LONDON (AP) — Field Marshal Lord Ironside, 79, died Tuesday night at a hospital.

Lord Ironside was chief of the British Imperial General Staff and commander of the home forces when World War II began in 1939.

On May 26, 1940, he was replaced as chief of staff by Gen. Sir John Dill, and took command of forces preparing to defend Britain against enemy invasion. Two months later he was relieved from that post.

Several things: The general belief that the end of the steel strike will see a quick spurt in business activity; continuing wage hikes in other industries than steel; steadily rising installment debt; slow but steady increases in consumer prices; and the increased demand for bank loans.

After Christmas, the demand for funds usually drops, both from business and from individuals busy paying off incurred debts. This could ease the credit squeeze automatically—unless a big boom is underway.

Many in the stock market seem to feel that the board is going to win its fight—that tight money will head off another inflationary spurt. At least, that's one reason given for the break in stock prices after they were built up as a hedge against the inflation formerly widely expected.

Hoffa Wants Debate With McClellan

ATLANTA (AP) — James R. Hoffa wants to meet Sen. John McClellan (D-Ark) in a debate in Atlanta, Ga., "before the Southern worker."

The chunky boss of the huge Teamsters Union challenged his old adversary during an interview last night. Hoffa will be in Atlanta several days conferring with union officials. McClellan comes here Friday to speak to a Georgia industrial group.

McClellan in Washington declined to answer the challenge. The Arkansas senator heads a committee that has been looking into racketeering in the labor movement.

Hoffa took several verbal pokes at Secretary of Labor Mitchell, "the dignitary" conducting Khrushchev on tour, "and union segregation."

He called Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev a smart operator but he criticized what he termed the dignitaries who he said are keeping the Russian leader from contact with the American worker.

"The workers understand the problem better than the statesmen," Hoffa declared.

Mitchell said Hoffa, "is either unaware of what is going on in the American labor movement or is just seeking headlines." He referred to the secretary's order to Hoffa to produce in 10 days a list of Teamster officials who have been convicted of felonies. Mitchell also wants to know what Hoffa plans to do about getting rid of them.

Hoffa said only four men are affected by the order. First issued under the new Landrum-Griffin Labor Reform Act, he refused to say what he will do about the or-

Man Admits to Shooting Another

HARRISON, Ark. (AP) — Deverly Kirby, 38-year-old disabled war veteran, testified today that he fatally shot J. Fox Moore, 53, in an effort to make the latter release Mrs. Moore.

But he said that he didn't mean to kill Moore. "I only shot at him in the shoulder to make him stop," Kirby testified for the first time in the slaying of Moore.

Delaware was the Dutch and Kirby and Finns.

"I will take care of it in accordance with the law," he promised.

Teamster policy is flatly anti-segregation. Hoffa declared, "and any local that practices it will have its charter lifted." Asked if he thought that policy would hamper Teamster organizers in the South, Hoffa replied:

"No. All workers have a common goal. They are workers together. We don't want them to live together. Any worker who disagrees doesn't belong in the teamsters."

Dr. Robert E. Harned of Chatham placed a similar call from another place in Chatham.

Fire Lt. Wendell Deer and five-man Albert Loring, who responded in the ambulance, said they found Munford lying on a couch in a first-floor den with Mrs. Munford and Dr. Harned attending him.

Both Drs. O'Connor and Harned said they have been treating Munford for an undisclosed ailment for two weeks.

First word that Munford had been stabbed came nine hours after he was admitted to the hospital.

About 5 p.m. Dr. O'Connor issued a statement that Munford had undergone abdominal surgery but giving no hint he had been stabbed.

Some two hours later Dinis disclosed Munford had suffered a knife wound.

Coaches Work Bobcats Hard for Smackover

Coach John Pierce sent his charges through rugged workouts this week as the Bobcats get ready for the opening home game of the season as well as the first conference contest.

The coaches fear a general let down after the upset at DeQueen last weekend and he knows that Smackover is probably as strong and maybe stronger than the Leopards.

The Bucks pushed Benton all over the field before being edged and then licked Fairview last week. In the two games the Bucks made 403 yards rushing and 169 passing while limiting the two opponents to 214 yards rushing and 21 yards passing. They scored 31 points in two games.

By virtue of the DeQueen victory Hope jumped in one statewide poll to the No. 1 spot in AA Division and No. 5 in the state. By another Hope is rated the No. 11 team in the state.

Prior to last weekend the DeQueen Leopards were rated very high by the pollsters but the rating didn't help them against the Bobcats. Hope is in about the same situation this weekend.

LONDON (AP)—Maria Callas said Tuesday night her cruises with shipowner Aristotle Onassis on his yacht were on the basis of friendship—not romance. She came here for concerts.

The temperamental diva, now separated from husband Giovanni Battista Meneghini, was sampling Italian night life and taking cruises in the Mediterranean on the wealthy shipowner's yacht while Mrs. Onassis was in Paris and New York.

Pravda Has Praise for California

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Communist party newspaper Pravda told readers today that there's an "enormous reserve feeling among Americans for the Soviet Union."

Pravda said the feeling "was displayed more clearly than ever in the extraordinary friendly atmosphere which prevailed during Khrushchev's entire visit to San Francisco."

Pravda correspondents with Khrushchev became lyrical over California.

"Everyone who travelled on the train from Los Angeles to San Francisco fell in love with the colorful sights of California—the orange groves, the blue surface of the ocean and fertile valleys and beautiful mountains."

Perhaps you've looked all over town for a particular item—just the right car, or that particular "dream house" or one of a thousand things—and then you found it in the CLASSIFIED ADS

What a pleasant surprise to find how effectively classified advertising gets results for the buyer or seller, seeker or hunter! It's truly amazing how such "little" ads get such "BIG" results at such a moderate cost. No other medium reaches so many people, so quickly. When they talk football in southwest Arkansas the conversation usually goes around to DeQueen. And when DeQueen is mentioned, the names Cox and Killian are sure to follow.

It's been like for years, and there are indications that it will be that way for years to come.

DeQueen lies just a good sprint inside the Oklahoma border. The only topic more important than money and politics is Coach Jack Bell's DeQueen high school football team. And the Coxes, and the Killians.

At the moment at little kid named DeWayne Cox is burning up the Leopards backfield. He follows in the footsteps of his older brother, Curtis Cox, who was DeQueen's backfield hero for three years.

Curtis is now making a name for himself at the University of Arkansas and Coach Frank Broyles says he may start Saturday night's game at Little Rock against Oklahoma State if regular fullback Joe Paul Alberly isn't ready. Curtis, a 196-pounder, is one of a number of potentially great sophomores that make Arkansas a rising Southwest Conference star.

The Cox clan has only one rival—a friendly one—the Killians. Jerry Killian was a 200-plus pound fullback for DeQueen in the years that Curtis Cox played backfield. He was built like a tank and he ever got started he knocked down everything but the goalposts.

Killian also signed a letter to Arkansas and began freshman drills, but had to drop out because of personal reasons.

Now his younger brother, Don, is matching young DeWayne Cox stride for stride in the Leopards backfield. These two, along with several other Bell-type athletes, have the Leopards listed again as one of the top teams in the state despite DeQueen's Class A ranking.

There is only one big fly in DeQueen's ointment. One name that narrows the eyes and sets the jaws of Leopards partisans: Hope.

Fifty miles southeast of Jack Bell's Kingdom lie the Hope Bobcats.

The fans were falling off the stands and standing on the side lines last Friday night when Hope outdistanced DeQueen, 25-20, in a football game that section of the state never will forget.

The Cox kid took a punt on his own 16 and came roaring out of the back on a last-minute dash for the goal, but he was caught.

Gees, and White, St. Louis 9. Home runs — Banks, Chicago, and Matthews, Milwaukee 44

Stolen bases — Mays, San Francisco 27; Taylor, Chicago, and Gilliam, Los Angeles 23

Pitching (based on 15 or more decisions) — Face, Pittsburgh, 18-1; Lew, Pittsburgh 18-9

Strikeouts — Drysdale, Los Angeles 256; S. Jones, San Francisco, 202

Declares DeQueen the Power of S. W. Arkansas Football — Until They Met the Bobcats

from behind by Johnny Turner of Hope and the Bobcats retained their five-point victory margin.

What really hurt was the fact that Hope spoiled a perfect season for the Leopards last year by beating them 6-0. DeQueen has won 11 of its last 13 games, and both losses have been to Hope, a AA school with a reputation of its own.

But the Bobcats are another story. This time it's about DeQueen, and it's almost over. The only thing left to say is the remark that closes every football conversation in DeQueen:

"Next year, 1950. That's the year."

They say that'll be the year... the year Jack Bell and the Leopards and the Killians and the Coxes...and everyone in town, beat Hope.

Dodgers Defeat Cards to Gain Tie With Braves

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Dodgers have crashed through again for a first place tie in the National League pennant scramble, and their ace in the race is Roger Craig, a once forgotten, ruddy-faced right-hander. It was Craig, pulled back from the minors in mid-June, who got the Dodgers started on their jump to the top by beating San Francisco 4-1 in the opener of that day-night doubleheader sweep over the Giants last Saturday.

And Wednesday night he pushed them back into a tie with Milwaukee, blanking St. Louis on five hits for a 3-0 victory after the Braves had stumbled for a 5-4 loss at Pittsburgh.

That Milwaukee loss, ending the Braves' streak at four games, also ended a spark of life into the third place Giants, who trail by two games after a 9-8 loss in 10 innings to the Chicago Cubs—their fifth straight setback.

Each of the contenders has three games remaining. The Braves, however, play their's at home, meeting last place Philadelphia Friday night, Saturday and Sunday. The Dodgers face the Cubs while the Giants, more dead than alive, finish at St. Louis. They all get a day off today.

The Dodgers, winning five of their last six, have put away 10 of their last 25 games, and Craig, leading the NL with a 2.12 earned run average, is 4-0 in that sport.

Southpaw Johnny Podres and reliever Chuck Churn each have won three, while Don Drysdale, the ace who tumbled, is 2-4.

Craig, 23, allowed the Cardinals just one extra-base hit, a third-inning double by Don Elston, and struck out five. He fanned three times, twice with men on base.

The Braves, handed only their fourth defeat in 17 games, were tumbled after Ed Mathews' 4th home run, with a man on, had boomed them into a 4-all tie in the eighth. The Pirates then beat reliever Joey Jay (6-11) and consecutive singles by Bill Virdon, pinch-hitter Rocky Nelson and

Snow For Dessert

For this low-calorie treat use any favorite fresh, canned or frozen concentrated fruit juice. Orange, lemonade or limeade are excellent flavor choices in the frozen juice line-up. The preparation calls for the softening of unflavored gelatin in a little cold water; the concentrated juice, when the mixture is stirred in sugar and thickened, egg whites are added and the whole mixture beaten until triple in volume. The snow can be chilled until firm in a decorative mold or in individual serving dishes.

Fruit Snows
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt

1 can (6-ounce) frozen concentrated fruit juice (tangerine, orange, grapefruit, grape, limeade, lemonade)
2 unbeaten egg whites

Sprinkle gelatin on cold water in top of double boiler to soften. Place over boiling water and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Remove from heat; add sugar and salt; stir until dissolved. Add frozen concentrated juice and stir until melted. Chill until mixture is the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Add egg whites. Beat with electric or rotary beater until mixture begins to hold its shape. Turn into a 6-cup mold or individual molds; chill until firm. Unmold and serve with Custard Sauce which utilizes the remaining 2 egg yolks. Yield: 6 servings.

*Custard Sauce
3 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla

Scald milk in top of double boiler. Beat whole egg and egg yolks; stir in sugar and salt. Gradually add small amount of the hot milk, stirring constantly. Return to double boiler and cook, stirring constantly, over hot, not boiling water, until mixture coats the spoon. Remove from heat; cool. Stir in vanilla.

Special Toast to Kern Was Bright Show

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — What can only be called a special-special brightened the television channels Tuesday night as NBC presented a "Toast to Jerome Kern."

The talented performers — Patricia Munnell, Howard Keel, Lisa Kirk, Robert Cummings and others — had unbeatable material to work with: Kern's great music.

They handled affectionately and effectively those great songs, "All the Things You Are," "Bill," "The Last Time I Saw Paris," and many more.

Only Louis Prima and Keeley Smith look liberties with the composer's work. Their modern idiom did not improve the music from "Showboat" or "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes."

Although transmission difficulties ruined the opening of the show, the singers soon started singing. Carol Channing clowning, Bambi Lynn danced and it was a fine 90 minutes.

Earlier, ABC presented its first "Bronco." This — in case you are confused — is really a continuation of last season's "Cheyenne."

is still around with Clint Walker in the title role.

Thus we now have two Westerns where there was only one last year. Tuesday night there were 10 horses. It was about card cheating in San Francisco. It was still a Western, though.

At the same time, "The Dennis O'Keefe Show" made its first appearance on CBS.

This is a good-humored, pedestrian addition to the list of satirical comedies. O'Keefe plays an incredibly unsophisticated columnist shoved into what the producers hope are funny situations.

In Monday's episode, Hope Emerson, for instance, he's been as a regular in this trapped into dating a 13-year-old girl and a sharp-tongued housewife for some reason forces him to dress and talk like a hipster, the writer's columnist's son.

Youth Charged With Assault, Battery

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A 14-year-old Negro boy has been charged with assault and battery in an alleged fight on a city bus involving a white school girl.

Amber Harper, 16, a student at Little Rock Central High School, said the boy struck her in the face and broke her glasses Monday after she asked him to stop bumping her on a crowded bus.

The charge was filed yesterday against Cecil White, a student at Dunbar Junior High School for Negroes. None of the five Negroes enrolled at Central High was involved.

Miss Harper was treated for facial abrasions at a hospital and released.

In 1957 Gov. Orval E. Faubus charged that Miss Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Harper, and another white girl student at Central had been held incommunicado by the FBI for several hours during questioning over reported integration troubles.

Barbecue, A Real Feast The Last Cup Of Coffee

...outdoor setting, gathering 'round and eating on the grill — Americans love to barbecue has become for most everyone a favorite now in the city of foods once re-formal dining. Take for example. Here's a meal that does beauti-fully. When is marinated in a do-zen, then grilled to per-fection, could possibly re-ally spiced flavor. A piece of grilled lamb salad, roasted pota-toes, garlic bread, the elevated to a bona-fide. Then the only thing missing is the coffee. Naturally, it should be piping-hot and full-bodied for hearty, back-for-more appetites.

Barbecued Lamb Steaks

- 1 lb. of lamb
- 1 cup strong coffee
- 1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons prepared mustard
- 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
- 1/2 cup pineapple juice
- 1/2 cup lemon juice
- 1/2 cup catsup

Have meat dealer cut lamb into steaks about 3/4-inch thick (use ends for soup or stew). Combine remaining ingredients. Marinate steaks in this mixture several hours or overnight, turning occasionally. Drain steaks, saving marinade. Grill over charcoal 8 to 10 minutes on each side, depend-ing on desired degree of doneness, brushing often with marinade.

Petitions Ask for Telephone Service

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Twenty-eight Spring County residents have petitioned the Arkansas Public Service Commission to get telephone service from the South-western Bell Telephone Co.'s Mil-schools had been postponed from Sept. 8 until the appeals court could rule on the U.S. District Court decision.

"The decision probably" means that no Negroes will be admitted to Dollarway High School this fall. Dollarway, on the outskirts of Pine Bluff and 42 miles southeast of Little Rock, has long been a segregationist stronghold.

When integration was imminent under the district court ruling, segregationists mustered strength, holding rallies and vowing publicly that no Negroes would enter white schools.

The three Negro students involved, Ernestine Dove, 16, James E. Warfield, 13, and Corliss Smith, 12 probably will be ad-mitted to all-Negro Townsend Park School in the Dollarway district. The appeals court ruled that they had not exhausted their administrative remedies under the Arkansas pupil placement laws

Khrushchev Is Jovial Over Farm Visit

By JOHN SCALI

COON RAPIDS, Iowa (AP)—Ni-kita Khrushchev, tired but smil-ing, arrived in the heart of Iowa's tall corn country today and an-nounced: "This is going to be a jovial day."

The Khrushchev motorcade drove into the midst of a scene of enormous confusion and activity.

Swarms of Army, Air Force, po-lice and other security people stood guard all over the farm of Roswell (Bob) Garst while favor-able preparations proceeded for a bountiful luncheon under a huge brown tent in the farmyard.

Thousands of persons, including school children, had lined high-way 141 from Des Moines toward Coon Rapids. The children waved and cheered for the beaming Com-munist boss.

En route the Khrushchev party stopped at one of the several Garst farms along the highway, where workers were busily har-vesting a crop of grain sorghum.

Khrushchev showed keen inter-est in the proceedings. He tramped through the field with his host, asking Garst all sorts of questions about the crop and the machinery used to harvest it.

Khrushchev's look of fatigue be-gan to drop away and was re-placed by one of eagerness as he questioned Garst about the meth-ods he used to feed hogs and chickens.

The security near the Garst home was at least as tight as it was in Washington or any other point on Khrushchev's American tour. Helmeted soldiers of the 4th Army were in evidence every-where, on hilltops, behind fences, in barns, at crossroads. They kept in touch with one another through portable radio transmitters.

Mr. and Mrs. Garst, Khrush-chev's hosts, are old acquaint-ances. They met him in the So-viet Union several years ago, when Khrushchev was beginning to express a keen interest in American corn-growing tech-niques.

Although he had displayed signs of fatigue last night at a civic dinner in his honor in Des Moines, the Communist leader still looked forward eagerly to his farm tour.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

DES MOINES (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, fac-ing another rugged day in his jet-propelled tour of the United States, is showing signs of wear. Obviously delighted, but sub-borally beginning, the No. 1 world Communist seems visibly to be slowing down.

Khrushchev's demeanor Tues-day night at a civic dinner in his honor and his facial expression re-acted happiness at his Iowa re-ception, almost to the point of be-ing benign.

But for the first time, Khrush-chev did no off-the-cuff speaking. And for the first time, he did not even read his own speech. The in-terpreter did it for him, in Eng-lish. As Khrushchev stood by listening, his eyes closed occasion-ally as if from deep fatigue. He seemed pale.

As plans went forward to re-ceive the Soviet leader at the Ros-well Garst farm near Coon Rapids today, Khrushchev's aides were understood to be trying to dis-suade him from trying to pack in to much activity.

A change in schedule had been suggested so that he could get out early and see more details of Iowa farm life before leaving later in the day for Iowa State University at Ames.

For Khrushchev, the speech de-livered to the civic dinner was the most mild of pronouncements in comparison with his other blasts along the route of his American tour.

The prepared text called upon Americans to enter into competi-tion with Soviets in agriculture, instead of in the manufacture of weapons of mass production.

Khrushchev assured his au-dience his proposal for complete disarmament, placed before the United Nations General Assembly Friday, was aimed solely at se-curing a lasting peace among na-tions.

If he had accusations against Americans, they were mild, with-out the familiar Khrushchev punch. There are some news-papers, he said, and some persons in the United States who consider the Soviet seven-year plan "as a kind of threat, a threat of Soviet economic offensive, a Soviet eco-nomic menace."

Then he added: "But the ques-tion is, what kind of menace, and to whom, can be our desire to in-crease our agricultural production, for instance?"

"What is wrong about our want-ing to compete with you, for in-stance, in the production of corn, meat or milk? Hardly anyone would contend that the consump-tion of more milk, butter and meat would make the Soviet people aggressive."

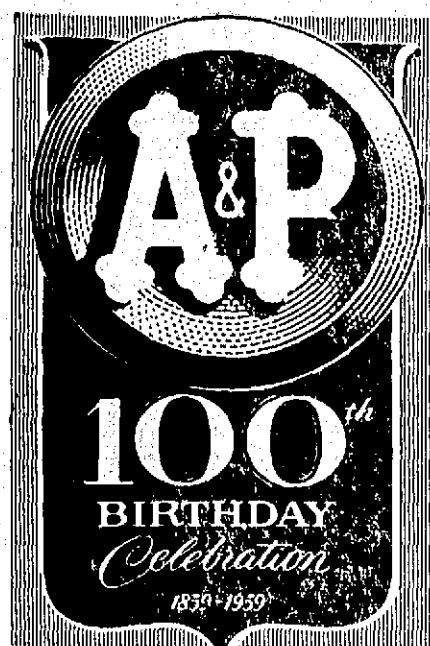

The remarks brought spontane-ous applause from the audience.

Khrushchev went on: "This con-clusion is more useful than the race to stockpile hydrogen bombs. We want the fields to be furrowed by peaceful plows and not by rockets and tank tracks."

The petition said the area in-volved was allocated to the Cen-tral Arkansas Telephone Coopera-tive at Donaldson, but that it had not provided telephone service.

Residents said they transacted business at Melvern and said they wanted telephone service through Melvern.
